Sharett Foresees Little Change After Election

TEL AVIV, Saturday. — Declaring his faith in the country's "straight-forward reasoning," Mr. Moshe Sharett, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, said last night that he believed the coming elections would leave the balance of parties about the same as in the present Knesset. This was his private opinion, he said.

He was speaking at last night's "Vocal Newspaper" of the Journalists' Association here. There was internal stability and unity within the country which no amount of electioneering or party interests should, or could, disrupt, Mr. Sharett said.

There was practically unity even in foreign policy, although that was the topic which aroused the fiercest controversy, Mr. Sharett said. The country was certainly united in its decision that the solution of the Arab refugee problem must be one not detrimental to us.

Unrest in Morocco, Tension in Cairo

CASABLANCA, Saturday. — Police and auxiliary forces stopped a fight between hostile clans of the same Moroccan tribe yesterday before any casualties were suffered, news reaching here said today.

Official sources in Rabat denied reports that French troops have clashed with Moroccan nationalists.

A clan of the Aquache tribe, at El Ksiss, at the foot of the Atlas mountains, midway between Marrakech and Fez, had long been on bad terms with their fellow-tribesmen. Two years ago, the dissident clan adhered to the Moroccan Communist party, and last year they adhered to the nationalist anti-French Istiklal party.

U.S. Not Hopeful About Big 4 Talks

WASHINGTON, Saturday (Reuter). — The U.S. Government is not hopeful that a meeting of the Big Four Foreign Ministers will lead to an easing of tension, even if the Ministers' Deputies can agree on the agenda.

This was evident from statements by the State Department's official spokesman, Mr. Michael McDermott, who said bluntly that Russia's note on Thursday did not suggest any real change of attitude by the Soviets to encourage the hope of reaching "useful agreements."

U.S. Base in Anatolia

By George Lichtheim, POST Correspondent

LONDON, Saturday. — Today's news of an American move to reinforce the existing Anglo-French security pact with Turkey coincides with some interesting unofficial disclosures about the recent conference of American diplomats in Istanbul.

It is now thought that the Turkish government has agreed to the establishment of an American air-base in Anatolia, facilities for Anglo-American naval vessels in Turkish harbours and closer integration of Turkish defence planning with the work of the Middle East command.

"BLOODY BATTLE" IN RABAT

The "Committee for the Freedom of North Africa" held yesterday in New York it had received word of "a battle between French Colonial troops and Arab nationalists" in French Morocco.

The committee produced a telegram signed by Allal Al Fassi, President of the Istiklal (Nationalist) party. It said: "Situation deteriorated. Rabat (capital of French Morocco) occupied by troops, surrounded by tanks. Palace surrounded. All cities encircled by troops, particularly Meknes. Fez. Bloody battle at Tada Ksiba where troops fired on civil population. Many dead and wounded. General Latour arrived on scene."

Bevin Resignation Believed Near

LONDON, Saturday, (AP). — Reports persisted in London today that old and feeble Ernest Bevin's days as Foreign Secretary are numbered. And the numbers are very small.

A change at the foreign office "now seems almost certain," said "The Times." A new man for Mr. Bevin's job "now seems almost inevitable," echoed the diplomatic correspondent of the Press Association, the domestic news agency owned by the British press.

U.K. to Release £2.5m. From Amman Balances

LONDON, Saturday (Reuter). — The British government announced yesterday it had agreed to release £2.5m. from Jordan's sterling balance in 1951.

A British statement today said a Jordan delegation headed by Finance Minister Sulaiman Pasha Nabulsi had held talks here regarding releases from Jordan's sterling balance in 1951 and other financial matters outstanding as the result of the ending of the Mandate in Palestine. The position would be reviewed later in the year, it said.

Hapoel Hamizrahi Agrees To Service for Women

The Hapoel Hamizrahi Executive will recommend that all orthodox girls of call-up age serve in orthodox "Nahal" units, Dr. Z. Warhaftig, Knesset member, announced in Jerusalem yesterday.

Dr. Warhaftig participated in a three-hour public discussion on the question of conscription of women with Dr. I. Leibowitz, head of "Haoved Hadati," the religious workers' section of the Histadrut, at the Beit Ha'am.

Mob of 500 Attempts To Storm Beersheba Police Post

BEERSHEBA, Saturday. — An angry crowd of about 500 Iraqi Jews attempted to storm the police station here this afternoon to attack two immigrants from Morocco taken into protective custody after a quarrel had developed about smoking on the Sabbath. A serious clash was averted when the crowd, armed with sticks and stones, was blocked at the barricaded entrance to the police station, and Inspector A. Goldberg, who was unarmed, went out to speak to the demonstrators. The crowd then dispersed.

Ex-Mufti's Cousin Killed in Nablus

Khaled Bey Hussein, a cousin of the ex-Mufti of Jerusalem, Haj Amin el Hussein, was shot in Nablus on Friday afternoon and died soon after in the local hospital, "Falahin" reported yesterday. He was a regional director of the U.N. Relief and Works Agency in the Samaria district.

Socialist Asked To Form New French Gov't

PARIS, Saturday (AP). — Socialist Guy Mollet, 46-year-old school teacher, today agreed to try to form a new French cabinet. M. Mollet agreed to make the attempt after two former Premiers, M. Georges Bidault and M. Henri Queuille, had failed.

Meet Communist Peace Aims Or UN Will Fail, USSR

LONDON, Saturday (Reuter). — "Pravda," in an editorial quoted by Moscow radio today declared that the U.N. was faced with "the choice of either fulfilling the demands of the recent World Peace Council in Berlin, or sharing the ignominious fate of the League of Nations and dooming itself to decay."
